If one dream should fall and break into a thousand pieces... never be afraid to pick one of those pieces up and begin again. That's the beauty of being alive... We can always start all over again. Enjoy God's amazing opportunities bestowed on us. Have faith in Him always...

- St. Bernadette Soubirous (1844-1879), Patron of Illness, Feast Day April 16

The Christ had to suffer and on the third day rise from the dead; in his name repentance and remission of sins must be preached for all the nations, alleluia

~Luke 24:46-47

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Sunday, April 22, 2018

Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12
Psalm 118:1,8-9,21-23,26,28,29
1 John 3:1-2
John 10:11-18

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us.

Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Choose Life...

Defending a cystic fibrosis child's right to life despite the disease's life-shortening effects, the mother of two children with the disease astutely observed, "People are not born with expiration dates tattooed on their feet. No one knows how long any of us has on this earth." Furthermore, "our society has become prejudiced against people who are perceived as disabled in any way, and they are deemed unworthy of the investment of love and resources. The value of human beings exists not in how much money they have or in their physical beauty, or their social standing. We must value every life because it is unique and irreplaceable."
