We need to fall, and we need to be aware of it; for if we did not fall, we should not know how weak and wretched we are of ourselves, nor should we know our Maker's marvelous love so fully.

- St. Julian of Norwich (1542-1621), Patron Saint of Anxious, Feast Day May 13

Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age, alleluia.

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples...and now through us.

When you give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

The Feast of the Ascension

The Ascension does not mark the end of Jesus' relationship with His Church but the beginning of a new way of His relating to the world - in and through His Church. This way includes every one of us who now bear His name. When viewed with the eyes of living faith the Ascension can begin to change the way we view ourselves and live our daily lives.

The Ascension invites us to reflect on who Jesus is - and who we are empowered to become in Him, beginning now and opening up into the life to come. He is indeed the Way, the Truth and the Life. (John 14:6) The Feast of the Ascension of the Lord Jesus helps to explain the Christian vocation and unveils the horizon which opens before us as we continue to live our lives now in this Way called Christianity. (cf Acts 9:2, 11:26) It points to the ongoing plan of redemption for each of us. It gives us a glimpse of the loving plan of God for the whole of creation. This Feast also points us toward a deeper understanding of the Feast of Pentecost which we will soon celebrate. The very Breath of God, His Holy Spirit, has been breathed into the Body of Christ, the Church - and into each one of us as members of that Body.

SOS!!! SOS!!! SOS!!!

Married Couples: Saul had a rough start as a disciple, but was able to redeem himself. In your marriage, we can sometimes hit rough patches, but forgiveness is what keeps us attached to the true vine. Stay connected to each other by learning how to better use the tools of communication and forgiveness. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend focuses on this, and other tools. The next WWME Weekends are scheduled for June 15-17 and August 10-12. You can get more information or apply online at GATN-wwme.org or by calling 678-242-WWME.
